Historical Sketch

Kim Goben was born on November 15, 1961 to James and Wini Goben. She attended Bloomington High School and later Lincoln College where she earned an Associate in Arts Degree in 1981. After leaving Lincoln, Kim continued on to Illinois State University where she earned a Bachelor of Science degree in 1983. Starting in September of 1984 and ending in January 1988, Kim worked for Westminster Village (Martin Health Center) in Bloomington. During that time, she was also a part-time sportswriter for the Daily Pantagraph, covering high school and college football and basketball. Between 1988 and 1989, Kim held a couple of different jobs, but in April of 1989, she started work at Mitsubishi Motors Manufacturing of North America where she would become an active member in the UAW for twenty years. In the years before her death, Kim spent a great deal of time researching her family's history, compiling numerous documents regarding her ancestors and relatives, as well as a tentative timeline of the Goben family's history. The work she did in looking into her family's ancestry will enable future generations of Gobens and their relatives to find links to their past.

Kim's research into the Goben timeline begins in the year 1839 with the birth of William Douglas Goben in Jefferson County Kentucky. By the time he enlisted in the Union Army in 1861, he had moved to Fayette County, Illinois, and become a farmer. He served in Company H, 35th Illinois Infantry Regiment for three years, but was severely wounded in the head at the Battle of Stone River in 1862. After leaving the service in September 1864, William returned to his farm where, in January of 1865, he married Margaret Thorp. The couple's first child, John Critten Goben, was born in 1866.

Charles Ellis Goben, great-grandfather to Kim Goben, was born on July 11, 1870, followed by Norman Goben in 1873 and Jarvis Goben in 1875. Charles Ellis married Hester Ann Belcher in July of 1899. The couple had seven children: Clara, Millard (Sr.), Elsie, Charles, Lincoln, Geraldine, and Anna. Millard married and moved to Bloomington, Illinois to work as a baker in 1924. His brother, Lincoln, joined him in work at the Bloomington Bakery Company in 1932. The next year, Lincoln wed Hazel Houser at the Christian Centennial Church in Bloomington.

The couple's only child, James, was born in August of 1934. In 1952, James joined the Navy and was made a member of the LST 1160 Traverse County. James returned to Bloomington in 1955 and, two years later, enrolled at Illinois State University. However, his time at the school was short lived and he dropped out to do odd jobs for his stepfather, Durwood Klemme. It was during this time that he met Wini Wright, the woman who was to become his wife. In 1958, a need for a job and money in order to be able to marry Wini led James to enlist in the Army. He was sent to Korea where he maintained his relationship with Wini through letters until he was able to come back to the United States in August 1959. Two weeks after his return, James and Wini were married. After the wedding, the couple packed up their belongings and moved to Arizona, where James had his next assignment. In 1960, Wini gave birth to a stillborn child. Kim was born in 1961, and her brother, Steven, was born in 1964. In 1966, Wini began teaching Biology at Tri-Valley High School. She had held other teaching positions prior to this, but Tri-Valley was where she stayed the longest, until 1977. In 1970, James returned to school at Illinois State University and graduated with a Bachelor in Science Degree in History. He went on to work as the head curator of the McLean County Historical Society. He received a Masters degree in 1975. James briefly held a job with a trucking company, People's Transfer, Inc., where his wife was also employed, but he was fired sometime after 1977. After losing this job, James occupied his time with hobbies like stamp collecting and watching the Chicago Bears. He passed away on February 2, 2003. Kim died ten years later on March 16, 2013 at the age of 51, survived by her mother, Wini, and her brother, Steven.
